An Overview of Section 3

Section 3 of federal civil rights laws refers primarily to provisions that prevent discrimination in federal programs and activities, with particular emphasis on ensuring equal access and opportunity for historically marginalized groups. - Section 3 Requirements: Developers receiving federal funds must provide economic opportunities to low- and very-low-income residents, especially minorities.

The Davis-Bacon Act and Related Wage Laws

While primarily focusing on wage protections, these laws also incorporate anti-discrimination provisions to ensure fair labor practices on federally funded projects.

Technology and Data Management

Advancements in data analytics facilitate more effective monitoring and enforcement, enabling
