The Origins of King Records

Founding and Early Years

King Records was founded in 1943 by Syd Nathan, a music industry veteran with a vision to create a label that could produce and distribute a wide array of musical styles under one roof. Based in Cincinnati, Ohio, the label was uniquely positioned in the Midwest, away from the traditional music industry hubs like New York City, Nashville, and Los Angeles. Nathan's goal was to establish a regional powerhouse that could serve both rural and urban audiences.

Initially, King Records focused on producing 78 rpm records, emphasizing genres that resonated with the local community. The label's early catalog included country, hillbilly, blues, and R&B recordings, reflecting the diverse musical tastes of Cincinnati and the surrounding areas.
