Historical Context and Background

The Die Bybel 1933 Vertaling emerged during a period of religious and societal change in the Netherlands. The early 20th century was marked by a growing desire for accessible and accurate religious texts amid modernization and secularization. The translation was undertaken by a team of theologians and biblical scholars dedicated to providing a Dutch Bible that was both faithful to the original texts and comprehensible to the common reader.

This edition was not the first Dutch Bible translation, but it became one of the most influential during the 20th century. Published in 1933, it succeeded earlier translations such as the Statenvertaling (1637), which, although authoritative, was often considered outdated linguistically and difficult for contemporary readers.
